

P

Books to grow your practice

Recommended by leaders, for leaders

PRINCIPAL JESSICA CABEEN RECOMMENDS:

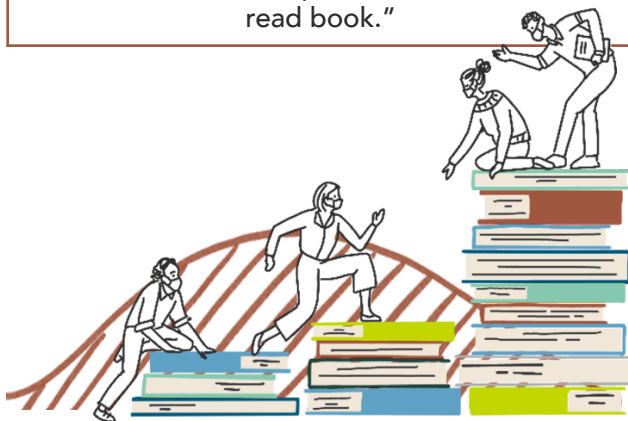

CULTURALLY RESPONSIVE SCHOOL LEADERSHIP, BY MUHAMMAD KHALIFA

"I read Dr. Khalifa's book last year, and not a day goes by that I don't reflect on my practices in a different light. He offers intentional ways you can reflect on past practices as a school leader and ways you can make substantial changes moving forward."

PRINCIPAL ELVIS EPPS RECOMMENDS:

SAVAGE INEQUALITIES: CHILDREN IN AMERICA'S SCHOOLS, BY JONATHAN KOZOL

"This book was written almost 30 years ago and yet it is as relevant today as it was then. Kozol discussed the harsh realities of racial segregation, inadequate school funding and staffing, and abject poverty. This is a must-read book."

P

Books to grow your practice

Recommended by leaders, for leaders

PRINCIPAL MAURICE MCDAVID RECOMMENDS:

CULTURALLY RESPONSIVE TEACHING AND THE BRAIN, BY ZARETTA HAMMOND

"This book takes the buzz words 'culturally responsive teaching' and makes them active and applicable. It steps beyond talking about race and history and moves into applying the science of culture and making sure that our dependent learners, often our Black and Brown students, are learning and growing."

LEADER MAJALISE TOLAN RECOMMENDS:

I'M NOT DYING WITH YOU TONIGHT, BY KIMBERLY JONES AND GILLY SEGAL

"Young adult literature allows us, as school leaders, to not only experience a snapshot of what our students are reading but to actually enter the real world our students grapple with daily. I'm Not Dying with You Tonight provides the opportunity for school leaders to view the snowball impact of racism on schools and the community from multiple perspectives."

(INTENTIONALLY BLANK,
THIS PART IS FOLDED INSIDE!)

Happy National Principals Month – and happy reading!